

GOOD AND BEAUTIFUL AND KIND

We long for a good life, a beautiful life, a kind life. But clearly that’s not the world we live in. We carry the stress of our fractured world in our bodies and relationships. Families that once gathered around tables have converted those tables into walls. Hostility, rage, and offense is the language of our culture.

How did we lose goodness, kindness, and beauty? And more important, how do we get them back into our lives? These are the two questions crying out in our streets, homes, churches, and from deep within our souls.

We will explore this further in our Sunday sermons, and take time to engage the material further in two key ways:

- We invite you to join the After-Service Table Discussions (at 10:30am after the 9am service, and at 1pm after the 11am service) during this Lenten Study! Community is so vital to helping each of us go deeper in learning and formation.
- We invite you to read along before/after each Sunday in the book to dive deeper into each week (see the guide below)
